ADDITIONAL REQUESTS:

This application constitutes a contract once signed and dated. By signing, I certify that I have read, understood, and accepted my rights and responsibilities, Bircham International University's (BIU) cancellation and refund policy, as well as its obligations and rights. I attest that there is no discrimination based on race, color, sex, beliefs, or religion. BIU issues its own degrees for professional recognition, which are not officially recognized. BIU does not offer job placement services and cannot guarantee the acceptance of its degrees. I also certify that all information included with this application is true and that the attached copies of documents are accurate and faithful to the originals. Submitting altered or false information or documents in the application and/or CV will result in the student's immediate expulsion and the loss of all tuition and refund rights. Your program will be canceled if you fail to meet the payment plan or submit the required assignments (a minimum of one per year).

The student has the right to cancel registration at Bircham International University (BIU) and receive the corresponding refund according to the refund policy. Cancellation is effective on the date a written notice of the cancellation is mailed. BIU shall make the refund within 14 days of cancellation notice was effectively received. BIU considers the program starting date the day that the student receives any study material. Study material may be one or a combination of the following: Academic Assignment Control form, and all or part of the textbooks assigned in this form. The cancellation notice must be sent in writing by mail or email dated, and signed, addressed to the director of BIU at the corresponding BIU office address or email.

Acceptance of these distance learning higher education academic credits is always the prerogative of the receiving institution or employer. Recognition criteria differ depending on each educational institution, or company policy, or country legal framework. There are no universal criteria for recognition and/or accreditation. Each country, region or institution has its own.

Any concerns about Bircham International University which have not been satisfactorily answered or resolved by the corresponding BIU office should be addressed to Board of Trustees.

Bircham International University provides a beneficial refund policy for the student: 100% tuition refund within 15 days from the program start; 80% tuition refund within 90 days; and 50% tuition refund within a whole year from the program start. This policy guarantees no financial risk to anyone willing to try the BIU's innovative distance learning higher education for adult professionals.

ADMISSION FEE:

A 200 Euros (or $250) admission fee is required for Bachelor's, Master's, and Ph.D. programs. This admission fee is not refundable once the Official Certificate for Admission has been issued. This admission fee ensures the student's commitment, so BIU may assume the extensive evaluation work of the documents concerning previous education (subjects, credits, hours of study, etc...) and professional experience (jobs, skills, responsibilities, etc...) in order to prepare a personalized Official Certificate for Admission.
